So the House again refused to adjourn.
 The question then recurring on the motion of Mr. Holman,
 Mr. Holman withdrew the same.
 And then,
 On motion of Mr. Washburne, at 5 o'clock and 30 minutes p. m.,
 the House adjourned.

TUESDAY, JULY 1, 1862.

The following petitions were laid upon the Clerk's table under the twenty-fourth rule of the House, to wit:

By Mr. Hall: The petition of citizens of Kansas and Missouri for a change in the Pacific railroad bill; which was referred to the Committee on Roads and Canals.

By Mr. Knapp: The petition of citizens of Illinois for the construction of a ship canal between Lake Michigan and the Mississippi river.

By Mr. Potter: The petition of citizens of Wisconsin, of like import.

Ordered, That the said petitions be referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. Wilson, from the committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two houses on the bill of the House (H. R. 371) to prescribe an oath of office and for other purposes, submitted the following report, viz:

"The committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two houses on the amendments to the H. R. bill, No. 371, 'to prescribe an oath of office and for other purposes' have met, and after full and free conference, have agreed to recommend to their respective houses as follows:

"That the Senate recede from its first amendment to said bill on page one, in line four, and agree to the following substitute in lieu thereof: 'Excepting the President of the United States.'

"That the House of Representatives recede from its disagreement to all the other amendments of the Senate to the said bill, and agree to the same.

“Managers on the part of the House—

“JAMES F. WILSON.

“JNO. A. BINGHAM.

“JOHN S. PHELPS.

“Managers on the part of the Senate—

“LYMAN TRUMBULL.

“PRESTON KING.”

The same having been read,

Mr. Wilson moved the previous question; which was seconded and the main question ordered, and under the operation thereof the said report was agreed to.

Mr. Wilson moved that the vote last taken be reconsidered, and also moved that the motion to reconsider be laid on the table; which latter motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk acquaint the Senate with the concurrence of the House in the said report.

Mr. Aldrich, from the committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two houses on the bill of the House (H. R. 260) making appropriations for the current and contingent expenses of the Indian department, and for fulfilling treaty stipulations with various Indian tribes, for the year ending June 30, 1863, submitted the following report, viz:

“The committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendments of the bill (H. R. No. 260) making appropriations for the current and contingent expenses of the Indian department, and for fulfilling treaty stipulations with various Indian tribes, for the year ending June 30, 1863, having met, and after full and free conference, have agreed to recommend, and do recommend, to their respective houses as follows:

“That the Senate recede from their second amendment.

“That the House recede from their disagreement to so much of the Senate’s third amendment as proposes to strike out the matter contained in lines eleven hundred and twenty-five, eleven hundred and twenty-six, and eleven hundred and twenty-seven, inclusive, and agree to the same.

“That the Senate recede from their disagreement to the amendment of the House to their sixth amendment, and agree to the same.

“That the Senate recede from their disagreement to the first amendment of the House to the Senate’s seventh amendment, and agree to the same.

“That the House recede from their second amendment to the Senate’s seventh amendment, and agree to the same with the following amendment: in line four, section two, of said amendment, strike out the word ‘two,’ and insert ‘three;’ and in the same line strike out the words ‘five hundred;’ in line two, of section three, of said amendment, strike out the word ‘fifty,’ and insert ‘forty;’ and after the word ‘dollars,’ in the same line, insert ‘or so much thereof as may be found necessary.’

“That the House recede from their disagreement to the eighth
