

After debate,
 On motion by Mr. Wright,
 The Senate adjourned.

THURSDAY, JUNE 26, 1862.

Mr. Trumbull presented a petition of citizens of Ohio, and a petition of citizens of Illinois, praying the construction of a ship canal between Lake Michigan and the Mississippi river; which were referred to the Committee on Military Affairs and the Militia.

Mr. Trumbull presented the memorial of W. C. Jewett, remonstrating against the passage of the Pacific railroad bill and the tax bill, and against the passage of a bankrupt law, without a full representation of the States in Congress.

Ordered, That it lie on the table.

Mr. Browning reported from the committee that they this day presented to the President of the United States the enrolled bill (S. 343) to provide for additional medical officers of the volunteer service.

The Senate proceeded to consider its amendments to the bill of the House (H. R. 371) to prescribe an oath of office, and for other purposes; disagreed to by the House of Representatives; and

Resolved, That the Senate insist upon its amendments to the said bill, disagreed to by the House of Representatives, and agree to the conference asked by the House on the disagreeing votes of the two houses thereon.

Ordered, That the committee of conference on the part of the Senate be appointed by the President pro tempore; and

The President pro tempore appointed Mr. Trumbull, Mr. Davis, and Mr. King.

Ordered, That the Secretary notify the House of Representatives thereof.

Mr. Foster, from the Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 530) granting a pension to Lawrence P. N. Landrum, of Taylor county, Kentucky, reported it without amendment.

Mr. Foster, from the Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 328) for the relief of Louisa Abert Byrne, reported it with an amendment.

Mr. Foster presented two petitions of merchants, traders, and citizens of New York, praying the passage of a bankrupt law.

Ordered, That they lie on the table.
